

UQFL134

Workers Political Organization (Rockhampton) Collection

Size	13 boxes
Contents	Election material and pamphlets (1917 to 1920), letterbooks (1907 to 1910), minutes (1904 to 1906) and financial records (1905 to 1919) of the Workers' Political Organization (Rockhampton); minute books of the Democratic League (1900 to 1904) and the Queensland Labor Party (1912); correspondence of the Workers' Political Organization; Eight-Hour Day Celebration union and Labour Day Celebration union letterbooks and financial records (1913 to 1928)
Biography	Workers Political Organizations were local Labor political organizations open to all unionists and non-unionists who accepted the Australian Labor Party platform. They were responsible for enrolling electors, educating workers in the principles of the Labor movement and choosing political candidates. The Democratic League was another local Labor political organization. T J Ryan joined the Rockhampton Workers' Political Organization in 1904.
Notes	Open access

---

Box 1

Election material, pamphlets, etc., c1917 to 1920

Box 2

Labour Day celebrations 1921, 1926, 1927

Box 3

WPO letter books, 1907 to 1910

WPO minute book, 1904 to 1906

Queensland Labor Party, Capricornia Division letter book, 1910 to 1914.

Box 4

Election material, pamphlets, etc., c1902 to 1918.

Box 5

Finance records, 1908 to 1919

Box 6

Finance records, 1905 to 1919

Box 7

Democratic League minute books

- 1900 to 1902
- 1903 to 1904

Queensland Labor Party minute book, 1912

Correspondence on various subjects, 1923 to 1924

WPO minute book, 1904 to 1905

Box 8

Finance records (not sorted)

Box 9

Correspondence, incoming, names beginning J – Y

Box 10

8-Hour Day Celebration union and Labour Day Celebration union letter books and financial records, 1913 to 1928.

Box 11

Correspondence, incoming, names beginning A – H

Box 12

Miscellaneous: financial records, minutes, anti-conscription campaign, etc.

Box 13

Correspondence, mainly outgoing.