

UQFL150

Mervyn Moriarty Collection

Size	1 box, 1 parcel
Contents	Photographs; art exhibition catalogues; correspondence from students; correspondence and documents of Australian Flying Arts School, news cuttings; video Big Country-Nice things happen ; film Sky Bridges
Biography	Mervyn Moriarty was born in Brisbane in 1937. He was an art teacher and artist, an abstract and figurative painter working in oil, acrylic and pencil. In 1971 he founded the Eastaus Art School, which became known in 1974 as the Australian Flying Art School (Eastaus). In 1978 it became the Australian Flying Arts School at Kelvin Grove, Brisbane.
Notes	Open access

---

Box 1

ABC Video Big Country - Nice things happen, n.d. (Content of video is summarised in note on top of Box 1)

Art exhibition catalogues – Moriarty, 1974 to 1984

Documents relating to exhibition at the Verlie Just Town Gallery, 1978

Assorted photographs, n.d.

Documents relating to AFAS tours, exhibitions' 1980 to 1983

AFAS Gazettes, Sep 1981-Nov 1982

AFAS documents - Constitution, Board minutes etc., 1982

Miscellaneous documents, n.d.

Newspaper & magazine clippings relating to Moriarty and AFAS, 1971 to 1982

Correspondence relating to Eastaus art school, 1973

Letters from students, 1974 to 1984

Correspondence: miscellaneous documentation relating to nomination for BHP awards for pursuit of excellence, 1984

Correspondence, 1977 to 1983

Documentation relating to relationship between AFAS & Moriarty, 1982 to 1983

Parcel 2

Film Sky Bridges, n.d.