Date range	1905 to 1985 [bulk 1961 to 1982]
Biography	Daisy Marchisotti (1904-1987) worked as a stenographer. In the 1940s her interest in the left-wing movement developed and she became an activist. Marchisotti became a member of the Communist Party of Australia, and in the 1950s left a better-paying job to work for the CPA. In 1964, she was part of the women's delegation for the CPA, to the Soviet Union. Marchisotti also worked for Aboriginal corporations and edited the Federal Council for the Advancement of Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders newsletter. She wrote articles on the CPA, Aboriginal affairs and racism.
Notes	Unrestricted access. This collection may contain culturally sensitive words or descriptions, some of which might not normally be used in certain public or community contexts.
