

UQFL54

Charles Schindler Collection

Size	1 box
Contents	Biographical material, manuscripts, newspaper cuttings, correspondence.
Biography	Charles Schindler was a foundation student of the University of Queensland: B.A. 1915, M.A. 1918; Lecturer, Department of French, 1915 to 1948; appointed Associate Professor of Modern Languages 1947; retired 1948. Thereafter he lived in New Guinea, where he established a small school at Aiyura in which he taught until the last years of his life.
Notes	Open access

Box 1

- 1 Schindler, Aubrey, Brother.
Letters 1969-1971 to his brother Charles Schindler re their father's last days, and a memorial to him.

- 2 Schindler, Charles, 1878-1969
[Biography]. Two statements prepared by his elder son Charles, one sent to the Courier-Mail, one to Miss K. Campbell-Brown; also press clippings from newspapers and University of Queensland publications.

- 3 [League of Nations]. Cover-title of notebook containing notes taken at meetings of the above, and of Queensland Peace Campaign Council.

- 4 Letters 1956-1967 to his son Charles Schindler, written from Aiyura, New Guinea, where he established and taught a school; news of the school and his pupils, and much discussion of world politics in which he had an abiding interest.

- 5 An exercise in logic, [n. d]

- 6 A ghost story, 1929.

- 7 A plan for a new world order, [194?]

- 8 [Post-war reconstruction], 194?

- 9 Speech for tonight, n.d.

- 10 Trials and triumphs of a French author in the Eighteenth century, 19??

- 11 Articles in French newspapers about Australia 1903-1909; articles in Daily Mail, Brisbane, 19 Mar. 1914; reports on his lecture on French institutions, 15 July, 1914.

- 12 World War II, world politics etc., with some holograph comments.

- 13 Miscellaneous – pamphlets, booklet & press cuttings.