

UQFL593

Lloyd Hodge Collection

Size	1 box
Contents	Manuscripts and typescripts
Date range	1926 to c1950
Biography	Lloyd Hodge was born in Adelaide in 1884. Lloyd and Alice Hodge and their children lived at Tawah near Childers, Biloela, Dalby and Buderim. Lloyd Hodge served at Gallipoli with the 3rd Field Ambulance, A.I.F. He was a grazier and farmer before and after the Second World War and for several years worked as the manager of the Callide Cotton Research Station, Biloela. Alice Hodge, who had been raised in England, was involved with the Country Women's Association. Lloyd Hodge died in April 1964. [Information taken from 2015 digital, online-accessible, memoir of Alice and Lloyd Hodge, The romance of Alice and Lloyd, an affectionate memoir , by Margaret Grace].
Notes	Unrestricted access

Box 1

Folder 1

Manuscripts and typescripts, short stories and poems, approx. 200p, 1926 to 1945

Inside lower board of the original folder with a list of pieces submitted and published

Includes draft for The longest night

Folder 2

Manuscripts and typescripts, short stories and poems, c100p, c1950s

Folder 3

Draft typescript for a novel titled Island Interlude. Foolscap. 215 leaves.

Folder 4

The Humpy [typescript]. 75 leaves, c1950