Queensland Art Gallery Trustees' Prizes:		[catalogues often include two prizes in the one publication]

Name	Date	Item
H C Richards Memorial Prize was an annual exhibition of contemporary painting instituted by the Trustees in 1951 as an acquisitive prize for landscape painting. In 1957 it became a prize for a painting of any subject in any medium. In 1972 the Prize became known as The Trustees' Prize and was conducted in honour of a person who had contributed to the advancement of art in Queensland during his or her lifetime. (The prize was not held in 1974.) In 1978 this became the Trustees' Purchase. The exhibition was not held in 1981 because of the gallery's pending move. The Purchase was last held in 1982. Subsequently, the Purchase/Prize exhibition became a curated 'Southbank' exhibition which developed in 1987 into Painters &amp; Sculptors. (No exhibitions were held between 1982 and 1987.)	1955	entry form

Andrew and Lilian Pederson Memorial Prizes Fund incorporates three different prizes: the Prize for Printmaking commenced in 1976 to be held every 4 years; the Prize for Small Sculpture commenced in 1978 to be held every 2 years; and the Prize for Drawing commenced in 1978 to be held every 4 years. In 1982 all three prizes were held to commemorate the opening of the new gallery, however after this frequency varied due to commitments to other projects and programme activities. The Drawing and Printmaking prizes were held in 1987, and Drawing and Small Sculpture prizes were scheduled again in 1991.	1976	catalogue, publicity
